

Kursed Creatures
Book Club
Discussion Guide
by Zachary Roush

Questions

1. The world of Kursed Kreatures is similar to our own, but different in key ways. How does it differ? What is similar?
2. What themes do you see established in the beginning?
3. Rabbs and Tams are close siblings, but their relationship isn't perfect. How would you describe it?
4. Each character has an emotional core, a desire, that drives them. What do you think Tams, Rabbs, and Chesters' cores are?
5. There are many enemies throughout the story, but who is the main antagonist and what do they desire?
6. Magic is fueled by willpower and energy. Would you say, in real life, that anything is possible with these two elements?
7. Do you think Rianon is justified in her actions?
8. Do you think Tams learns from her mistakes? Why or why not?
9. How did Fray gain so much power and control?
10. What does Fray's cult say about real-life religion, if anything?
11. The story takes place on the continent of Mammon. The whole land is essentially living through a dark age. How did it get to be this way? How do we stop our own world from entering a dark age?
12. If you were a character in Kursed Kreatures, which kreaturekind would you be?
13. Who was your favorite character? Why?
14. What role does violence serve in the story?
15. Which part of the novel was most exciting? Why?
16. What would be worth trading souls for? Anyone? Anything?
17. What themes have stood out to you all the way to the end?

Zach would love
to read your responses!

Email them to:
contact.zachroush@gmail.com